DESCENDANTS

OF

OF

PETERSBURG, NEW YORK

AND

INTERMARRYING FAMILIES

M. W. Hewitt

1255389

Most genealogies begin with the family immigrant to America, but so little research has been done on the line that it seemed more logical to begin with the first Hewitt who came from Stonington, Connecticut to Petersburg, Rensselaer Co., New York, then in Albany Co. and known as "Little Hoosick" in 1780, and who was the family Revolutionary ancestor.

Hewitt #5-82

However, through the kindness of a genealogist in Boston, who also has been working on a Hewitt branch from the early family, we have been able to trace our ancestry back to Thomas Hewitt, a seafaring man who was lost at sea in 1662. Records from Stonington and Preston, Conn., have also been searched and some facts found. For your study and information these gleanings of the early ancestry have been printed in the front of this book.

The family story has been traced from Rensselaer and Livingston County, New York records. These include surrogate and land records; town records from various towns; gravestone records; newspapers; family Bibles; and county and town histories where available. Also the Vital Records on file in Montpelier, Vermont, have been consulted.

In consultations with descendants of the early family, we have found them most interested and cooperative. In many instances, the only means of gathering information was by letter writing, particularly on branches of the family who are so far removed from this area. As you note the nearly complete lines and dates of those from far away, I hope you will realize the tremendous task it has been to correspond with these members to gather data on their "family tree".

In instances where they are known, the birth place, place of marriage and place of death are noted. However, in the families around the town of Petersburg, if not noted herein, the town is Petersburg.

Abbreviations used are noted below.

Some families, you will find, are somewhat brief on dates and information. Much of this data was left out by family request or in some instances, the compiler was unable to get it. However, research is still being carried on and any information to add will be most gratefully received.

The compiler asks your indulgence for any errors which may be found, but to the best of my knowledge, all dates given are correct. Space does not permit the printing of all proofs of dates; however, my genealogical files contain these proofs which anyone may consult at any time.

Thanks are due to many, many individuals who contributed to this book, by their own knowledge and who made available their family Bibles and records. To name all would be an endless task, so please accept my grateful thanks for any part you may have had in compiling this genealogy.

There is, however, one person, Mrs. Lisle Cottrell, to whom my heartfelt thanks and appreciation are given. She has done the typing on this book and without her genealogical records and knowhow, ever present assistance and also transportation, this project could not have been brought to reality for your enjoyment and pleasure. I should also like to mention Mrs. Joseph A. Wilson, Sr., who kindly offered to index the records.

I hope you, each one, will enjoy this genealogy and study it very thoroughly in order to learn more about the family to which we belong. I accept no remuneration for this work - the mere fact that God has given me health and strength to provide for you a record of your family to study, preserve and enjoy is the only remuneration I wish.

Sterry Hewitt was born 7 Apr. 1756 in Voluntown, Connecticut. He died 29 July 1845 in Petersburg, Rensselaer County, New York. He married 1 May 1782 Hannah Barnaby born 28 Aug. 1756 died 20 July 1843 Petersburg, N.Y. dau. of Chandler Barnaby.

From the two names of "Sterry" and "Chandler" it seems almost certain that they were derived from the families of that name, both living in Connecticut very early. Previously, no special research has been done on this.

Sterry Hewitt moved to Little Hoosick, now Petersburg, in 1780, after he had served in the Revolutionary War. He settled on the Hill Hollow Road, and there, still standing, is the house and buildings which he probably built some years after his arrival. The farm is now owned by Mrs. Edith Talmadge.

Sterry Hewitt, like many other Petersburg settlers probably picked the spot where he wanted to live, and no doubt lived there for some time before he received his lease from the Patroon VanRensselaer.

One can almost picture him traveling back to Connecticut to marry his, no doubt, childhood sweetheart. And their return to the mountain cabin which he had built for her.

The files in the Manuscript Section of the State Library at Albany, New York gives an outline map of his farm and a description. (See Van Rensselaer Manor Papers - Petersburg, Berlin and Stephentown Survey Book: Petersburg # 48.)

The description is as follows:

" Sterry Hewit
Begins at an Ironwood Stake & Stones standing at the Source of a small Run of Water which is the S W Boundary of a Farm or Lot surveyed for Gideon Clark and runs from the said Stake & Stones:

A glance at the map of his farm shows that his home was located very close to the small run of water mentioned in the lease. No road shows on this early map and it is likely that only a trail led to the farm at this early day. One could wonder what trait in their character made these early pioneers pick what seems to us such inaccessible spots in the mountains for their homes. They were hard workers, as witness the stone walls that marked their fields and boundaries. The nearest lot owners to Sterry were Gideon Clark, Zachariah Whitaker (whose lot did not bound on Sterry) Jacob Gates and Gershom Breed. The map shows that Clark's home was close to the Main Brook.

Sterry Hewitt evidently added to his farm property as soon as he was financially able. Other records recorded in the Van Rensselaer Manor papers show that on 25 Mar. 1795 Jacob Gates quit claimed to Sterry Hewitt 6 acres of a farm in Petersburg. And again on 11 July 1804 he leased a farm of 40 and 3/5 acres which was a part of the farm formerly leased to Jacob Gates.

In the Town Clerk's records at Petersburg is registered the ear tag assigned to Sterry Hewitt.

Sterry Hewitt - assigned Aug. 30, 1792

transferred to John B. Hewitt

"A smooth crop off the right ear and slit behind the same."

Of course, Sterry is listed in the various census records from 1790 through 1840. The 1800 census lists "Stary Hewit" as head of the family with the following: Free White Males - under 10 yrs. of age - 3 (Lewis, James, Rensselaer); of 10 & under 16 - none; of 16 & under 26 (Sanford); of 26 & under 45 including heads of family - 1 (himself); of 45 & up - none. Free White Females - under 10 yrs. of age - 1 (Sally); of 10 & under 16 - 2 (Hannah, Lydia); of 16 & under 26 - 1; of 26 & under 45 (Hannah wife of Sterry).

We are unable to place the female between ages 16 and 26. Was she another daughter of whom we do not know? Or was she a relative living with the family, or the "hired girl". It is more likely a relative or the "hired girl".

Nine children were born to Sterry and Hannah Hewitt; - all on the home farm in Petersburg. It is interesting to note that many of his descendants also first saw the light of day in the old farm house, or its predecessor.

The Family Bible owned by Sterry Hewitt is now in the possession of the Historian of the Society of Descendants of Sterry Hewitt, to be preserved by the Society. It was given to the Society in 1956 by Mrs. Amy Hewitt Moses (Mrs. Harry), a great, great granddaughter of the original owner. This Bible was printed in 1785 in Edinburgh by the Assigns of Alexander Kincaid, His Majesty's Printer. The Bible measures only 4 x 6 inches and since it is so small there was no place for a Family Record as in the larger, later Bibles. The record is written in a crude longhand on the flyleaf:

Sterry Hewit was born in the year 1756 April 7 Day
Hannah Hewit was born in the year 1757 August 28 Day
Sanford Hewit was born in the year 1783 May 24th Day
Hannah Hewit was born in the year 1787 October 4th Day

Lydia Hewit was born in the year 1790 April 6th Day
Sally Hewit was born in the year 1792 December 12th Day
Lewis Hewit was born in the year 1794 July 20th Day
James Hewit was born in the year 1796 August 20
Renssellaer Hewit was born in the year 1799 April 19
Andrew Hewit was born In the Year 1801 May the 30th

Notice that the ninth child - Betsey - was not listed in the family birth records in the Bible. Was it because there was no more room on the flyleaf, or just neglect?

Sterry Hewitt applied for a Revolutionary War pension following the Act of Congress of 15 May 1828. His certificate was dated 17 Jan. 1833 No. S-13354 at Washington, D.C. and was for the amount of Sixty Dollars a Year. Data from his pension application follows:

"Sterry Hewitt, son of Henry, was born in 1756 in Voluntown, Conn. While residing in Stonington, Conn. he enlisted and served as a private with the Connecticut Troops as follows: from about May 1, 1775 in Captain James Eldridge's Company Colonel Parson's Regiment, and was discharged about the last of Dec. 1775; Richard Hewit was lieutenant of said company during this period of service, no relationship to soldier shown; from sometime in the fall of 1776, one month in Capt. Thomas Wheeler and Oliver Smith's Company; from sometime in the winter of 1777, about two months in Capt. William Stanton's company, Colonel "Goit's" (perhaps meant for Coit) Regiment and was stationed at Fort Griswold; very soon after the termination of last named service, one month as substitute for his father in Captain Daniel Fish's Company and acted as guard at Stonington Point; from about May 1, 1777, between seven and eight months in Captain James Eldridge's Company, Colonel Samuel Prentice's Regiment and was in a skirmish at Scotch Plains. He enlisted in August 1778 and served one month as a private in Captain Joshua Babcock's Company, Colonel Cristopher Dyer's Rhode Island Regiment; from this time until the close of the war, he was frequently called out on alarms and served on tours of three or four days each; entire length of this service is not given.

In 1780 he moved to Petersburg (then called Little Hoosick) New York.

He also stated that he was positive he served as a private soldier during the Revolutionary War for the term of 21 months and for such service claimed a pension. (Data from Pension Office, Washington, D.C. Archives Building.)

The pension was allowed and executed 9 Aug. 1832 while he was residing in Petersburg, Rensselaer County, N.Y. There was no information about his family given in the records.

On a list of Pensioners whose rights were passed on by the Mayor's Court of Troy from 1818 to 1840, Sterry Hewitt is listed as of Petersburg. It shows that he was alive in 1840 and his name appears with his residence in the sixth census.

In the lists of Pensioners of 1840 - New York - Northern District - Rensselaer County - Town Petersburg - Sterry Hewitt - age 84.

Apparently for some reason after Sterry Hewitt died, his heirs had trouble in collecting some portion of pension due from the government. This was reported by Cora Hewitt Green, Sec'y. on April 18, 1938, who stated that the entire acknowledgement could not be found.

Here the record ends abruptly - probably the last bit of the paper was torn off and lost. But the main part of the record remains.

Sterry Hewitt was buried in the old cemetery at Petersburg, N.Y. known as the "Moses" cemetery. Beside him rest his wife Hannah, dau. Lydia, son Lewis and his wife Eunice (Waite). The grave of Sterry was marked in 1932 by Hoosac-Walloomsac Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution with a Revolutionary War marker.

The gravestones read:

What about the two Bibles mentioned in the inventory? Is the Bible now owned by the Hewitt Society one of these, or were there two others much larger than the one we have. It would seem that the small Bible (4 x 6) could not be termed a "large" Bible by the appraisers. So - what has become of the two mentioned? A search should be made for them, even if no records are made in them.

Since research on the HEWITT family started more than five years ago, much time has been spent on the early family in order to obtain the correct parentage of our ancestor - STERRY HEWITT.

Last fall (1962) more of this information from Thomas[1] to Sterry[5] was found in the library of the New England Historical & Genealogical Society, Boston, Mass.

This information was most important as it finally proved the direct line, as well as the parentage of our Sterry.

Your compiler felt that a copy of the exact record should be included in this genealogy. (See copy following the Hewitt line to Sterry - page).

Brief sketches of the intermarrying families are also included. Additional research remains to be done on the Keeney family.

THOMAS HEWITT FAMILY

I. THOMAS HEWITT was lost at sea in 1662; he married at Stonington, Conn. 26 April 1659 HANNAH PALMER, dau. of Walter and Rebecca (Short) Palmer, b. Charlestown, Mass., 15 June 1634. Hannah m. (2) 27 Dec. 1671 Roger Sterry; (3) 25 Aug. 1681 John Fish; both marriages taking place at Stonington.

A seafaring man, the first we hear of Thomas Hewitt is from the diary of Thomas Miner, Sr., who speaks of him as in command of his vessel in the Mystic River in the year 1656, where he was receiving the surplus products of the early planters here, in exchange for Boston goods. In his business transactions he made the acquaintance of Walter Palmer, whose daughter he married. In order to make Stonington his abode for life he purchased a tract of land on the east side of the Mystic River, which embraced the present site of the Elm Grove Cemetery in Stonington, Conn., on which he erected a dwelling house of primitive dimensions, pending which he continued his coasting trade, extending his business to the West Indies. During the year 1662 he purchased a cargo of neat stock, sheep and poultry, designed for the West Indies market, with which he set sail for that place, expecting a pleasant voyage and successful exchange of his cargo for goods in merchandise suitable for the inhabitants of this region round about. Months and years passed, and no glad tidings came of his safe arrival in the West Indies, nor any trace of him anywhere, which forced the conclusion of his wife and friends that amid some fearful storm, his vessel had floundered and all on board had found a grave in the cold, dark, heaving sea.

Pending the session of the General Court of Connecticut in 1670, a hearing was had for the consideration of a petition of Mrs. Hannah Hewitt, the widow of Thomas Hewitt, for liberty to marry again, setting forth that she had not heard from her late husband for the space of eight years, and better, and her neighbors also testifying that the said Hewitt had so long been absent and that they had not heard of him, or the vessel or company he was with since their departure. "The court having considered the premises, declare that the said Hannah Hewitt is at liberty to marry again if she see cause."

I. The name of Palmer was originally a common title of those who had returned from the Holy Land, and who carried a palm branch as a token of their pilgrimage. It became a common surname in England and several of the name founded families in New England previous to 1635.

WALTER PALMER was an early settler in Charlestown, Mass. Walter was Constable at Charlestown in 1633 and with his second wife was admitted to the church 1 June 1633. In 1642 he removed to Rehoboth, Mass. and was Deputy to the Plymouth General Court 1645.

In 1652, he joined his son-in-law, Thomas Miner, with others, in the settlement at Wequentenock, Conn. which became Stonington. He died there 10 Nov. 1661. His will dated 19 May 1658 mentions his wife, sons and daughters and all of his grandchildren.

The name of his first wife has been given as Ann or Elizabeth, but not proven. He m. (2) prob. 1633, Rebecca Short. Ch. by 1st wife:

STERRY

I. ROGER STERRY was probably b. 1630 and died in 1680 at Stonington, Conn. It is not known whether he, himself, came from England to America. Only one person of the name of Sterry is listed in Passenger Lists from England - George b. abt. 1611 who sailed from England to the Barbadoes in 1630. Roger may have been a son of George, but it is equally likely that he was the emigrant. Roger settled in Stonington, Conn. in 1668 and three years later married there, HANNAH PALMER HEWITT dau. of Walter & Rebecca (Short) Palmer and widow of Thomas Hewitt. The only child of Roger Sterry and Hannah (Palmer) Hewitt was Lieut. Samuel Sterry, who removed to Preston, Conn. (1674-1734) m. (1) Hannah Rose and had 2 sons. By a second marriage he had a son, Roger.

FANNING

I. EDMUND FANNING, appears as a Connecticut settler in 1653. He no doubt was the son of Francis Fanning, Mayor of Limerick, Ireland, and this line may be traced back for many generations. Edmund Fanning married Ellen ----- before emigrating and lived in New London, Fisher's Island and again in New London where he became one of the original proprietors in 1665. He appears to have had a prominent share in building the first Congregational Church of Stonington. Edmund and his sons Edmund, Thomas and John served in King Phillips War 1675/6. They received grants of land in the so called "Cedar Swamp Lots" as compensation for their services. Edmund died at Stonington in Dec. 1683, leaving five sons and one daughter. His estate was settled by the Probate Court by which it appears that he had given the bulk of his property to his four eldest sons and daughter during his life time. What was left at the time of his death was left to his widow Ellen and youngest son James. He must have been born about 1620 and married Ellen in Ireland about 1649.

FAMILY OF JAMES B. HEWITT

James B. Hewitt b. 20 Aug. 1796 Petersburg, N.Y. d. 12 May 1872 town of Portage, Livingston Co., N.Y. m. (1) 17 Feb. 1817 Alice Waite b. 6 July 1795 Petersburg, N.Y. d. 26 Sept. 1827 Canadice, N.Y. dau. of Peleg & Mary (Green) Waite; m. (2) abt. 1828 Mary (Polly) Gray b. 14 Dec. 1792 d. 28 June 1852 dau. ------- m. abt. 1852/53 Ann Gally b. abt. 1809 Wayne Co., N.Y. In the 1855 census of the town of Portage Co. of Livingston, Ann was listed as having been in the town 3 yrs. She probably was a widow as Merritt Gally ae 16 b. Wyoming Co. and Wilson Gally ae 11 b. Monroe Co. are also listed as having been in the town 3 yrs., although their relationship is not given to James B. Hewitt, the head of the family. James B. Hewitt apparently lived in Canadice, N.Y. where at least one ch. was born and where his 1st wife, Alice Waite, died. In the census of 1850 he was listed as of the town of Portage, Livingston Co., N.Y. with real estate valued at $3125.00. The 1855 census states that he had lived in the town 18 years. Many of the Hewitts and their descendants lived in Livingston Co. We find records of the families in the Baptist Church records of Nunda, Hunt, Grove & Portage. James B. Hewitt was a prosperous man for his times for the Agricultural census of 1855 lists him as the owner of a saw mill and with real estate valued at $1000 - raw materials consisting of 3000 logs valued at $5000 and 3000 lumber at $2400. He employed 2 men whose average monthly wage exclusive of board was $14. Possibly Merritt and Wilson Gally were the employees. Ch. of James B. Hewitt & Alice (Waite).

Both are buried in the Hunt's Hollow Cem., Hunt, Livingston Co., N.Y. His will was dated 9 Jan. 1909. It is said that Peleg W. Hewitt came from Springwater barefoot in the snow and settled in Hunt's Hollow on a 12 acre plot of land with a log cabin. He built the present house and barns and cleared the rest of the land to the present 145 acres. He attended the Baptist Church in Hunt's Hollow, and helped to move the church to Hunt. It burned May 7, 1955 and the cornerstone of the present concrete one was erected in Sept. 1956. An old picture of the home of Peleg W. Mary Hewitt b. 31 Mar. 1824 d. 11 Feb. 1916 Montague, Mich. m. 16 Dec. 1849 New York, N.Y. Sylvester J. B. Watson b. ------ d. 28 Feb. 1884, son of James & Reuter Watson. The following exerpts taken from a letter from Mrs. Fred Remthun of Muskegon, Mich. sheds additional light on this family. "S.J.B. Watson and Mary Hewitt were married in New York City where their children Ellen & Sanford were born, coming to Michigan in 1855. They came by canal, the Ohio river and then overland to Chicago. There they transferred to a schooner and sailed up the eastern shore of Lake Michigan to a point opposite Ludington where the statue of Father Marquette now stands and where Alamanza, sister of Mary lived. She had married a man by the name of Hull. The Hulls had two boys, both dead at this time. The elder, Alfred, had no children, but the younger did leave a family. Later the Watsons embarked again and went south to the White Lake Harbour near where Montague and Whitehall are now located. After living in that settlement for a while they homesteaded a small farm of 40 acres and a fraction about two miles north of White Lake where they lived until his death. After Sanford & Cornelia's marriage they continued to live in the vicinity; he working as a talleyman in the various lumber camps during the winter months and farming in the summer." Ch.
